

Cotswold League 18 January 2014 at Cheltenham Boys College

The first Cotswold League gala was held at the Boys College and although Cinderford swimmers put on a valiant fight they finished a way off the eventual winners, Cheltenham

15 year old Mitch Savage stormed into the lead winning the 50m freestyle and 50m backstroke (with a 2 second PB) and finishing in 2nd place in the 100m IM. He joined forces with Morgan Peck, Chris Owston and Frazer Montague and together they excelled to win the 50m medley relay. Andrew Cole replaced Chris in the freestyle relay and the team finished in 2nd place overall. Chris also achieved PB's in his 50m breaststroke and butterfly races.

Gabby Stephens was impressive winning her 50m backstroke, George Fear finished in a great 2nd place with a new PB in his 100m backstroke and a determined swim saw Matt Rogers come 2nd in the 100m IM.

The 11 years and under relay team of Marcus Hopkins, Ben Clarke, Brad Creed and Danny Jones sprinted into 2nd place in their 25m medley relay, Brad improving his 25m and 50m butterfly time in his individual races and both Ben and Danny improving their 25m freestyle times.

In the 11 years and under girls races: Tamzin Latham finished in an excellent 2nd place in her 25m breaststroke race with a PB; Rebecca Kennedy took a massive 9 sec off her 25m freestyle and Hannah Kibble improved her 25m backstroke time.

Casey Davis finished in a terrific 2nd place in her 50m freestyle with a new PB and took 3 sec off her 100m IM. Casey together with Jess Bayliss, Maddie Worgan and Nya Levy came 2nd in the 15 years and under 50m medley relay and then with Ceris Westlake replacing Casey came 2nd in the Open 50m medley relay which was swam straight after.

Other notable improvements in times were Rebecca Howard for 50 and 100m breaststroke and 100m IM; Chloe Howard in her 100m butterfly and Evan Jones in his 50m breaststroke.
